

September 2011 Monthly traffic update

5.3%

Total international passenger volumes increased by 5.3% versus September 2010. Overseas international passenger arrivals were up 33.8% on September 2010 largely due to the Rugby World Cup, offsetting softer than usual NZ outbound travel.

5.3%

International MCTOW for the month was up 5.3% over September 2010, with growth dominated by the two new Chinese entrants (China Airlines and China Southern Airlines) as well as Singapore Airlines Cargo and Jetstar.

-5.9%

Domestic passenger volumes for September 2011 were 5.9% down on September 2010 largely due to the delay in the start of school holidays from the last week of September in 2010 to the first week of October in 2011.

121.0%

An influx of visitors for the Rugby World Cup has driven a 121.0% increase in visitors from the United Kingdom and a 707.6% increase in visitors from France.
