

July 2015 Monthly traffic update

6.7%

International passengers (excluding transit passengers) at Auckland Airport were up 6.7% in July 2015. Passenger growth occurred across all regions with particularly strong performance on trans-Tasman (+6.6%) and Pacific (+9.3%) routes, stimulated by a robust New Zealand and Australian school holiday travel period and strong aircraft loadings in July.

149,553

Queenstown Airport's total passenger numbers increased by 8.0% on July 2014, and hit a new monthly passenger record of 149,553 in July 2015. Domestic passengers were up 6.0% and international passengers were up 10.8% compared to July last year, with a record number of passengers on all four trans-Tasman routes for the month. A further milestone was reached with more than 400,000 international passengers passing through the airport in the last 12 months.

14.6%

Strong growth in visitor arrivals from the Americas continued in July 2015, up 14.6% on the prior year. Double-digit arrivals growth from Canadian (+19.1%), American (+13.3%), Brazilian (+18.5%) and Chilean (+38.1%) visitors was driven by capacity increases on Vancouver and Los Angeles routes and improved loadings on Santiago services over the New Zealand winter season.

21.8%

International passengers at Cairns Airport increased by 21.8% in July 2015. The strong turn-around performance of recent months for international passengers continued following the successful launch of several new routes, including Jetstar's direct Bali-Cairns service and the Silk Air operated Singapore-Cairns-Darwin service.
