

March 2019 Monthly traffic update

0.0% Auckland Airport total passenger numbers in March 2019 were almost the same as last year. International passengers (excl. Transits) were down 0.7%, while domestic passengers grew by 1.1% compared to March 2018.

International passenger growth (excl. Transits) was impacted by the shift in timing of Chinese New Year to early February in 2019, as well as the Easter and school holiday period from late March in 2018 to mid-April 2019. This resulted in Australian and Chinese visitor arrivals for March being down by 11.6% and 9.0% respectively vs prior year. Domestic passenger growth was predominantly driven by additional capacity, particularly on the Auckland-Queenstown route (+8,000 seats).

Notes:

This monthly traffic update from Auckland International Airport Limited (AIAL) is generated with assistance and data from Statistics New Zealand, the New Zealand Customs Service, Airways New Zealand, Immigration New Zealand, Queenstown Airport Corporation and AIAL. International and Domestic passenger movements are actual. A refinement in transit reporting from Immigration New Zealand in June 2018 has resulted in Auckland Airport restating Transit passenger numbers for the current and prior periods. This document is intended for information purposes. It should not be considered a recommendation, offer or invitation to purchase securities. All reasonable steps have been taken to ensure that the information is true and accurate at the time of publication. *Maximum Certificated Take-Off Weight (MCTOW) forms the basis of determining airfield charges at Auckland Airport.
